

Attention All Parents & Coaches...

We are pleased announce that Scott Pilling Photography, a Professional Sports Photography company and tournament vendor, will be on hand at the Blatant Fall Jam on October 20-21, 2018.

Scott Pilling Photography is offering to get high quality actions shots of your teams while they play. The company's clients include Sports Illustrated, MLB, NBA, NHL, MLS and the Carolina Hurricanes.

We are forwarding this to you now so your team has time to make arrangements with the company for coverage during the tournament.

Team coverage offer details, for your consideration, are as follows:

- Scott Pilling Photography is taking requests for Full Game Action Photography that will contain roughly 800- 1000 Quality Action Photos of your players/team! If your team signs up for coverage, ALL participating players on your team will be photographed.

- The cost of teams signing up during the event is:

$20 per athlete on the team. The majority of the team must sign up to get coverage. Scott Pilling Photography will not be covering single athletes.

- A) Scott Pilling Photography emails a link to each parent on the team the SAME evening that your images were taken. The team may forward the link to whomever they choose (family, friends, etc) . You can download your images from the convenience of your own home.

- Please note that the price covers one (1) game. The company states that if your child is on the field during a covered game, he/she will be photographed in action!

- The images contained on the discs are all hi-resolution and may be taken to ANY store to have prints made up (there are NO watermarks or copyright restrictions)!

- Scott Pilling Photography will ONLY be photographing teams that sign up for action photos.

- Scott Pilling Photography accepts cash, checks and credit cards and Venmo (team checks/cards are accepted as well).
